At AT&T Park
Special Guest Speaker

James R. Doty, M.D. is the founder and director of the Center for Compassion and Altruism Research and Education at Stanford University of which His Holiness the Dalai Lama is the founding benefactor. He collaborates with scientists from a number of disciplines examining the neural bases for compassion and altruism. His work has been quoted extensively in both the scientific and lay press. Dr. Doty has spoken throughout the world on the importance of compassion and the value of service in leading a happy, healthy and meaningful life.

He is also a professor in the Department of Neurosurgery at Stanford University School of Medicine, as well as an inventor, entrepreneur and philanthropist. As a philanthropist, Dr. Doty supports a number of charitable organizations supporting peace initiatives and providing healthcare throughout the world. He also supports a variety of research initiatives and has provided scholarships and endowed chairs at multiple universities including Stanford University and Tulane University School of Medicine, his Alma Mater.

Dr. Doty serves on the Board of a number of non-profit organizations including the Dalai Lama Foundation of which he is chairman and the Board of Governors of Tulane University School of Medicine. He also serves on the Senior Advisory Board of the Council for a Parliament of the World’s Religions and the Charter of Compassion International.

Lisa Cooper, General Manager of VITAS for San Francisco Bay Area, cordially invites you to a one-of-a-kind event just for health care executives and physicians at AT&T Park.

It all begins with a stimulating discussion. Our distinguished guest, James Doty, M.D., will share Keys to Improving Customer Satisfaction in Today’s Healthcare Environment. Followed by an up-close and personal experience of the playing field at an exclusive field-side party hosted by VITAS Innovative Hospice Care. Then mix and mingle with your health care colleagues and watch our Giants take on the Colorado Rockies. The evening ends with a fireworks extravaganza in the park! This all-inclusive event at the park is all for a good cause! Proceeds will benefit the VITAS Community Connection (VCC), the charitable organization that supports needy hospice patients and their families right here in our Bay Area community.
